SummerQuest Programs for Adults

Join us for a special kick-off event!

June 14 • 5 p.m.

SIMPLE INTERACTIONS
with the Fred Rogers Institute

Imagine the power of a single, small, and ordinary moment. Such moments are an essential building block of healthy development for children and youth, and relationships among adults and within our community.

Find meaningful ways to understand, appreciate, and promote such moments.

In this one hour program, we’ll draw from the legacy of Fred Rogers and videos of real practice to explore the power we have to build connections and enrich our communities.

SIGN UP:
Visit cclsys.beanstack.org, use the Beanstack Tracker App, or stop by the circulation desk. You can also sign up at our Kick Off Event on Wednesday, June 14.

EARN BADGES:
Complete weekly reading challenges or attend a program to earn badges and qualify for a chance to win prizes!

Scan to sign up!
Mindful Movement, Music and Meditation
June 21 • 1 p.m.
Explore breathwork, gentle and creative movement and musical expression designed to promote relaxation and flexibility and give you portable tools of wellness and self care. No experience needed. Suitable for varying abilities. Registration required.

Turn Curiosity Into Impact with Citizen Science!
June 28 • 6 p.m.
Citizen science enables people from all walks of life to advance scientific research. Matt Schmitt from the University of Pittsburgh joins us to discuss citizen science and the many ways you can get involved.

Community Book Group: Kitchen Front by Jennifer Ryan
June 29 • 1 p.m.
A story of four women participating in a cooking contest to win a job as a radio personality in 1940s England. Explore the culinary delights created with rations and grown in home gardens during World War II. Join the discussion and sample desserts featured in the book. Copies are available on the 3rd floor. Space is limited. Registration required.

Guerrilla Gardening: Create a Wildflower Seed Bomb
June 30 • 2 p.m.
Help bring greenspace to crowded, concretized urban areas. Guerrilla gardens provide beautification and the mental benefits that come with it. They strengthen community pride and bring strangers together. Create a throwable ball of seeds, compost, and clay, ideal for hard-to-reach places. Registration recommended.

Chocolates of the World
July 7 • 1 p.m.
Unwrap a chocolate adventure as we take a tour of chocolates from around the world! Participants will sample a variety of chocolates from different regions as a local chocolatier presents a history of chocolate. Space is limited. Registration required.

Can You Escape?
July 10 • *3 to 7 p.m.
*Book a 1-hour team escape room experience! Break out...if you can! Bring your team of 4-6 players and work together to solve riddles and puzzles to escape the room before time runs out! Registration required.

Puzzle Pandemonium
July 12 • 12 to 3 p.m.
Bring your team of 4 players and work together to complete a 350 piece puzzle before your opponents! Registration recommended.

90s Nostalgia: Create a Friendship Bracelet
July 17 • 4 to 5 p.m.
Friendship bracelets bring good luck! Legend has it that if you make a wish while tying on a bracelet, it will come true once the bracelet falls off of its own accord. Friendship bracelets became the trademark of being a student in the late 80s/early 90s. Bring your bestie and reminisce with us as we remember those long summer months spent with friends while we braid friendship bracelets! Registration recommended.

Turn Curiosity Into Impact with Citizen Science!
June 28 • 6 p.m.
Citizen science enables people from all walks of life to advance scientific research. Matt Schmitt from the University of Pittsburgh joins us to discuss citizen science and the many ways you can get involved.

Community Book Group: Kitchen Front by Jennifer Ryan
June 29 • 1 p.m.
A story of four women participating in a cooking contest to win a job as a radio personality in 1940s England. Explore the culinary delights created with rations and grown in home gardens during World War II. Join the discussion and sample desserts featured in the book. Copies are available on the 3rd floor. Space is limited. Registration required.

Guerrilla Gardening: Create a Wildflower Seed Bomb
June 30 • 2 p.m.
Help bring greenspace to crowded, concretized urban areas. Guerrilla gardens provide beautification and the mental benefits that come with it. They strengthen community pride and bring strangers together. Create a throwable ball of seeds, compost, and clay, ideal for hard-to-reach places. Registration recommended.

Chocolates of the World
July 7 • 1 p.m.
Unwrap a chocolate adventure as we take a tour of chocolates from around the world! Participants will sample a variety of chocolates from different regions as a local chocolatier presents a history of chocolate. Space is limited. Registration required.